

PROSECUTE FOR PERJURY

Further Proceedings Expected In Breathitt County.

JETT AND WHITE IN JAIL

They Are Allowed No Extras, Despite Request of Judge Hargis—Ewen Warned Not to Leave House Where He is Staying.

(By Associated Press.) JACKSON, KY., June 20.—Since the removal of Jett and White to Lexington and the prospect of another trial in another county beyond the scene of the feud influence, there is considerable talk here of prosecutions for perjury and bribery. It is stated that a move is on foot to swear out warrants at once for the arrest of men in high places for bribery, perjury and an accessory to the March murder before the fact. One of these warrants is expected to be served to-night. The statement by Judge Redwine that he will hold a special term of court when he finishes work in Irvine and Lee counties is taken as a conclusive step in this direction.

The situation is still one of apprehension. The foreman of the grand jury that indicted Jett and White has been threatened, and the soldiers were stationed around his house last night as well as around that of Haddix, who testified to seeing Crawford and Tarpe, teamsters for Hargis Brothers, coming from the Ewen Hotel just before the fire was discovered. Anxiety is felt for other witnesses and jurors and the provost marshal will continue holding Jackson under martial law.

NO EXTRAS

Breathitt County Prisoners Eat Regular Jail Breakfast.

(By Associated Press.) LEXINGTON, KY., June 20.—Notwithstanding Judge Hargis' request that Jett and White be allowed "extras" at his expense, both men ate the jail breakfast. This was visiting day, but visitors were not allowed to see the "Breathitt county prisoners." Jailer Robert Wallate says he intends to be present at every meeting in the jail of any person who calls on Jett and White and will take absolutely no chances on poison or collusion with outsiders. He watches all the food that goes to them. Judge Hargis is still here. Captain Ewen, the exile witness from Jackson, stated to-day that he had been warned not to leave the house where he is staying, and that he would heed the warning. A lecture on the situation in Breathitt county, which Captain Ewen was to have delivered to-night, has been called off. The danger is said to lie in the presence of men who reached Lexington yesterday from Jackson.

WANTS NO TROOPS

May Hold Special Session of Court for Trial.

(By Associated Press.) LEXINGTON, KY., June 20.—The Breathitt county feud has been the occasion of conferences of prominent politicians and others here to-day. County Judge James Hargis, who accompanied Jett and White here yesterday, was with friends last night and to-day and to-night.

Hargis is a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, which recently reorganized the local organization. This action was afterwards defeated by the county judge here, redacting the city. Members of the deposed local organization have been very attentive to Judge Hargis, and have had different conferences. While these conferences were in progress, Joseph Bruner, a detective in the Lexington and Eastern Railroad, which runs to Jackson, was proceeding to arrest several visitors from Jackson "as accessory before the fact," and was prevented by B. J. Ewen, who declined to swear out the warrants.

Ewen is still a prisoner in the Martin home, and does not venture out of the house, day or night, as there are many in Lexington now who have arrived recently from Jackson. In addition, there are the arrests of prominent people for trial on charges of venue.

There is no doubt that the request of Judge Osborne and the Harrison county officials for no troops at Cynthiana will be observed unless enough funds from Breathitt county shall come there to make the situation threatening. The next regular term of court at Cynthiana will not be until September, but the announcement of Judge Osborne that he probably will call a special term early next month, to try Jett and White is believed to have had much to do with the conferences that are being held here now.

THE BURNING QUESTION

Governor Wants Special Grand Jury to Investigate It.

(By Associated Press.) FRANKFORT, KY., June 20.—Governor Beekinside this afternoon received a telegram from Postmaster Hurst, Mrs. J. B. Marcum and other residents of Jackson, asking for the continuance of the provost guard established by the militia. In response he assured them that he would continue to do all in his power to protect the people of Breathitt county. No order recalling the troops has been issued yet. They will be held here pending the calling of another special term of court to investigate the burning of Ewen's house and the attempt to bribe him in the Jett case.

The Governor is pressing the empaneling of a special grand jury for that purpose, and State Inspector Hines will return to Jackson to confer with Judge Redwine and Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd regarding it.

WHY SPEND TIME AND MONEY BY GOING TO THE SPRINGS?

Only people of means can afford to leave their homes and business for two or three months at a time in search of health at some thermal spring, or other resort. This means that 99 per cent. of the sick are left behind to fight the battle as best they can. The time is passed for such useless expenditure of money. ECHOLS' CONCENTRATED IRON AND ALUM WATER places the man of small means on the same footing with his rich neighbor, as he can be cured more quickly at home by using this Remedy than by drinking the Natural Water at the Springs, and the cost is not equal to a week's board.

This Remedy is the product of the Natural Water as it comes from the Spring, reduced 100 times by the Echols process, which absolutely retains all its medicinal properties. It is composed of twenty life-giving minerals, which are nearly identical with the different salts composing a healthy human system. Such being the case it stands to reason that every organ of the body receives benefit with this treatment.

Permanent cures cannot be made until the cause of the trouble has been removed, and our Concentrated Water does this by striking at the very root of the disease. Being a Natural Remedy it contains no stimulants, which are often used in patent medicines to deceive you by making you think that benefit is being derived when such is not the case. If you suffer with indigestion, Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Catarrh, Female Labor, Pains, Complaints, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Scrofula or other Blood Diseases, begin with our Concentrated Water to-day, even if you think your case is hopeless. Our reputation has been made by curing cases which could not be relieved by ordinary means. You have all to gain and nothing to lose by going through a trial of this Natural Mineral Water Remedy, as we will cheerfully refund your money if results are not satisfactory, after a thorough trial. The small cost (three cents per day) at which it can be used, places it in the reach of all, and it is worth a trial, to say the least.

building will cost at least $100,000. Application has been made to the Passenger and Power Company for sufficient current to supply a plant of 400 horse power. It is understood that the local Tobacco Workers' union has withdrawn the union label from the Butler & Boshart factory of this city. This step is taken in view of the recently reported sale of the plant to the Continental Tobacco Company, which has not been denied by Mr. Butler.

HE TRIED TO SWIM ACROSS THE DOCK

A white man named John Green almost paid the penalty of his daring with his life yesterday afternoon about 1 o'clock at the corner of Twenty-eighth and Dock Streets, and all for a 25 cent bet. Green and another man, name unknown, made a bet that he could swim across the dock. In the effort to win he leaped into the dock with his clothing on and started across, but before reaching the other side he was pulled out, but the ambulance, with Dr. Syde in charge, was summoned and the half-drowned man resuscitated, a wetter, but a wiser man.

BEACH PARK TRAINS

Strike Will Not Stop People from Going to Popular Resort.

The strike on the street railway doesn't affect the Southern and the two trains that every Sunday carry crowds to Beach Park at West Point, will run as usual to-day. Those who wish to spend the whole day can go in the morning and for those who only wish to spend the afternoon and evening there is a train in the afternoon.

Crowds go every Sunday to enjoy the many attractions of Beach Park and this will be no exception. It is as easy to get to Beach Park and easier than to some of the city parks, during the continuance of the strike.

PRINT THE BIBLE IN MANY TONGUES

Has Been Published in 155 Languages or Dialects by American Tract Society.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, June 20.—The seventy-eighth annual report of the American Tract Society made public to-day, states that in this society a consensus has been reached as to what the Bible teaches on many, if not all, essential points, as heretofore by the several evangelical denominations and that it is printing it in various forms and many languages and is sending it to the people in all quarters of the globe.

The gospel has been published in 155 languages or dialects and the colporters and gratuitous distributors distribute it far and wide among the people. The demand for Christian literature in the mission field is throughout the world greater than it has been for three-quarters of a century.

A FINE DAY BY THE BAY

Locomotive Employees Hugely Enjoy Their Annual Outing.

DINNER AMPLE AS OCEAN

Such a Spread Never Was Seen—Ice Cream Without Measure—Swimmers Pounded Bay to Pieces.

No Accidents.

The annual excursion of the employees of the Richmond Locomotive Works to Buckroe Beach yesterday was a thoroughly delightful affair. Every favorable condition conceivable contributed, and it could not have been otherwise than a success. The men took their families and the trip was enjoyed by not less than two thousand and four hundred people. Every-thing that could possibly go, did so, from the managing director at the head of the mammoth plant, to the humblest helper and apprentice.

It was a great deal of fun to go around among so many, but as every one contributed to the common stock without stint, it was present in plenty. The excursionists traveled in forty-five comfortable cars over the Chesapeake and Ohio Road, and there was no standing up because of the lack of room. Four long trains had to be formed to take care of all the coaches, and as this cavalcade moved rapidly on to the beach, it looked as if some great assault upon the deep was contemplated by the engine builders. And that was true.

Games and Contests.

When Buckroe was reached the games and contests began and continued for two or three hours, during which men, boys and girls, and mothers and fathers, who know the meaning of toil, were girls of sixteen in their youthful enjoyment of every moment that swiftly passed. A more genuinely contented and happy lot of people could scarcely be seen. The spirit of the occasion was felt and appreciated. It was the outing of the men and their families who are united in a bond of strength from the fact that they work on the same road, and happy day after day under the same roof. The men of the Locomotive Works are as proud of their great enterprise as the owners of it are.

The women and children enjoyed untold delight from the merry-go-round. Money was plentiful, showing the prosperity of the men employed at the plant, for $75 worth of merry-go-round tickets were bought and distributed among the crowd for their recreation.

DINNER AMPLE AS OCEAN.

The dinner was almost as ample as the neighboring ocean. Every one had a plenty and to spare, and ice cream was in such abundant supplies that even the boys in the party got enough and more. Those who refused to eat any more, a thing never before recorded about a healthy boy.

An hour or so after dinner the men and many of the ladies took a dip in the surf. There were no accidents, as the strong men managed to pound and splutter out of the water. Not a rowdy or disagreeable person went on the trip. Not an unpleasant incident occurred. If it had been one great, multitudinous and overgrown family gathering, it would have been a success. The day was a shining testimonial to the fact that the men of the Locomotive Works are as proud of their great enterprise as the owners of it are.

Sections of the train came in soon after midnight until nearly 1 P. M.; but before midnight the annual excursion party of the city were sheltering tired, battered and browned, but exceedingly contented men, whose brawn and brain turn cold and pulseless steel into the living and fiery steeds.

SHOT TO DEATH

Last of Glasgow Fugitives Meets Violent Death.

(By Associated Press.) GLASGOW, MON., June 20.—News has reached this city that James McKinney, the last of the Glasgow fugitives, was shot to death after he had made an ineffectual attempt to kill Miss Darnell, who had discovered the outlaw hiding in her father's ice-house. Noting that things were not exactly right at the ice-house, Miss Darnell called for her father. McKinney saw them and endeavored to use his rifle. The mechanism of the gun stuck, and before he could get it in working order Darnell grabbed a hammer and shot the outlaw, who died three hours later.

McKinney is the third one of the four prisoners who participated in workmen's break from the Glasgow jail on June 6th to meet violent deaths, and their escape has caused a great deal of trouble. Charles Hill, officer, and William Hardee, James McKinney and Jack Brown, the latter being lynched in this city on Thursday night.

Call Pastor To-Day.

A congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian Church will be held to-day after the morning service, at which time the report of the Glasgow fugitives will be read. The report recommending the name of the Rev. Egbert W. Smith, D. D., of Greensboro, N. C., for the pastorate to succeed the Rev. Dr. Kerr, now of Baltimore. The report will in all probability be unanimously and heartily adopted, and a call will be extended to Dr. Smith.

THE VIRGINIA CADET FINALS

Military Movements Open the Commencement Exercises.

THE BOARD WAS SALUTED

Final Celebration of the Cadet Dramatic Literary Society—The Hosts Gathering for Unveiling of Cadet Battle Monument.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LEXINGTON, VA., June 20.—Commencement exercises incident to the closing of the sixty-fourth session at the Virginia Military Institute began this morning at 9 o'clock with morning parade, followed by guard mounting. These initial exercises were witnessed by a large crowd of visitors and ex-cadets, who for several days have been arriving in Lexington for the commencement this year. The cadet battery, in command of Captain T. S. Carter, the tactical officer, at 10:30 o'clock fired a salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the Board of Visitors. The following members being present: Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, president of the board; Colonel Francis L. Smith, of Alexandria; Phil F. Brown, of Blue Ridge Springs; J. M. Hooker, of Stuart; Lloyd T. Smith, of Heathsville; William T. Shields, of Lexington; Thomas W. Shelton, Norfolk; J. W. Seathall, superintendent of public instruction.

The salute was followed by various manoeuvres of artillery drill by the second class, the fourth classmen serving as horses to draw the pieces over the field. During the exercises, other cadets of the third class were being put through signal drill.

Battalion inspection took place at 6 o'clock in the afternoon and the young soldiers showed up to fine advantage.

LITERARY CELEBRATION

The final celebration of the Cadet Dramatic Literary Society took place to-night at 8:30 in the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hall. A large and appreciative audience was present. The music was furnished by the V. M. I. orchestra. Professor Herman Krause, leader. The society members were: President, Marshall McC. Milton, of Berryville, Va.; Vice-President, Sidney A. Loughridge, of Louisville, Ky.; Secretary, Carroll D. Hagan, of Richmond, Va.; Treasurer, Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr., of Rio, Ky.; Sergeant-at-Arms, Henry D. Whittle, of Martinsville, Va.

President Milton welcomed the auditors in a short and appropriate address. Following this came two declamations: Cadet Robert S. Hudgins, of Hampton, Va., subject, "The Traitor's Death"; Cadet James A. Merritt, of Baltimore, Md., subject, "Marmion." The orators were: Henry D. Whittle, subject, "The Confederate Soldier"; Ellis C. Caldwell, of Stop, Va., subject, "Our Country's Need." The question for debate was: "Resolved, That Terrorism Expense is Beneficial to the United States." The affirmative debaters were: Cadet Marshall McC. Milton, of Berryville, Va.; and Cadet Reuben Ragland, of Petersburg, Va.; the negative by Cadet Gilbert Marshall, of Bay, St. Louis, Mo., and Nicholas C. Harris, of Bellevue, Va.

OLD BOYS GATHER.

Already the "old cadets" have begun to pour in to attend the Virginia Military Institute commencement exercises and the unveiling of battle and battle monument—The "Old Boys' Gathers." By Sir Moses Ezekiel, in honor of the cadets who fought in the battle of New Market, May 16th, 1864, and nobly sustained the day. More interest has been evinced by the alumni for this occasion than any event in the history of the school. General Joseph R. Anderson, of Goodland county, the president of the V. M. I. Alumni Association, arrived Thursday afternoon, and has been hard at work looking after the details.

The local alumni committeemen are meeting all of the incoming trains, and each old cadet, as he arrives, is taken to headquarters and there assigned to his quarters. Many of them will be accompanied by their families. The alumni of the "Old Boys' Gathers" are expected to be in the city on the day of the unveiling of the monument, and several special excursions will be run by the railroads from the adjacent cities, which will bring hundreds to attend the exercises and to see the unveiling of the monument. The local alumni committeemen are making in order to have a full representation present at the exercises and one again make the old boys' gathering the grandest and most successful of the kind.

TENTS TO SHELTER THEM.

That there may be no lack of quarters should the attendance be larger than anticipated, the tents occupied by the cadet battalion during their last encampment on the Institute grounds have been left standing, and will be used to quarter some of the visitors, and thus they will have the pleasure of again renewing that part of the cadet life.

More responses have been received from the graduates of earlier years than from those of later years, but as the case has been for many years past, the greater portion of the returned graduates on the day have been those of the recent years; hence they will come in great numbers, being accustomed to making the annual pilgrimage.

It has been roughly estimated that there will be present on the day about 800 sons of this great military school, "The West Point of the South," to do honor in thus adding another chapter to the history of the school, and it is hoped that all who can will possibly attend. A hearty welcome will be given to each and every one of them, and "Auld Lang Syne" once again ring in their ears, when they will meet old comrades, which may be for the last time, and pass pleasant moments together.

ROCKINGHAM CROWS OVER AUGUSTA

The Census Bureau Shows It to Be Greater in Wealth.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HARRISONBURG, VA., June 20.—Considerable interest is manifested here in the latest report of the census bureau, showing that Rockingham is the richest county in Virginia by over $500,000, thus outstretching her neighbor, Augusta, which county has generally been supposed the richest in the State. The specialty in which Rockingham exceeded the other counties is in the value of her farming lands.

The following comparison between Rockingham and Augusta will tend to show that the Rockingham farmer is worth more in bulk, as well as in the value of their lands per acre: The farms in Rockingham are worth, exclusive of buildings, $3,747,330, while those of Augusta are worth $2,290,170. The buildings are also regarded as more valuable than those in Augusta, being estimated at $2,257,119, and those of Augusta at $1,813,590. Therefore Rockingham girths at $5,004,449, and those of Augusta at $4,103,760. The value per acre Augusta is about $9 behind Rockingham. In Rockingham there are about 65,000 acres of farming lands less than in Augusta, yet notwithstanding this fact the value is far in excess of the Augusta lands.

The average value of the Rockingham farms is $76.65 and those of Augusta $42.92, but the latter has fewer farms by about 300. The live stock value in Rockingham is $2,600,000 more than in Augusta. The farming implements used on the farms in Rockingham are valued at $436,340, and those in Augusta at $439,000. Where the most noticeable difference between the two counties is in the value of the money invested in farms, some of the Rockingham farms, representing a money value of $3,075 each, the income is $21, while the Augusta county farms yield very little more, although the investment on each farm is $420.

In summing up the difference in the wealth of the two counties, Rockingham exceeds in agriculture alone by about $500,000. In manufactures and commerce she is in the lead. Of course, other counties eclipse the two in manufactures, but where the manufacturing wealth increases, and Rockingham is the richest county by over $500,000, notwithstanding all rumors to the contrary.

An interesting fact is that Rockingham ranks fourth in the number of farms. Physically, the county is not so rich as being ahead of Rockingham also. Loudoun raises more live stock than any other county; next comes Fauquier and then Rockingham. Pittsylvania shows a greater gross income from farms than any other, being followed by Rockingham, Augusta and Norfolk in the order named. Norfolk uses more fertilizer by fifty per cent. than Rockingham does not rank at all in it.
